

The Society for Simulations and Gaming Singapore (SSAGSg) invites you to be an exhibitor at

40th International Simulation and Gaming Association Conference

Date: 29th June to 3rd July 2009

Venue: Prince Georges' Park Residences (PGPR) Auditorium

Overview of ISAGA2009

The conference is an annual event of the International Simulation and Gaming Association and it is into its 40th anniversary this year. The Singapore chapter of ISAGA(SSAGSg) is most privileged to be the organizer. SSAGSg has designated this year's theme to be "Learn to Game, Game to Learn".

A number of internationally renowned gaming and learning experts from Taiwan, Australia, European Union and Russia will be giving keynote address on the theme.

The Delegates

About 200 attendees, mostly lecturers, researchers and games developers from the field of simulation and gaming. At least 70% of the attendees are from overseas and a large majority of them are based in Europe.

The ISAGA 2009 Organizing Committee has allocated limited space for exhibitors to showcase their products and services at this Conference. Besides showcasing your products and services to an international gaming and learning community, you may get helpful tips on gaming techniques and endorsements from the experts.
